Elizabeth Pickett Mills : Come Garden with Me before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Come Garden with Me:

This book presents gardening ideas arranged month by month. It deals with gardening in North Carolina and covers topics such as flower and vegetable gardening, shrubs, bushes and trees, propagating plants, soil enrichment, and pest control.

About the Author For 24 years, from 1955 to 1979, Elizabeth Pickett Mills wrote a popular and often quoted garden column entitled, Come Garden With Me. Her columns appeared each week in two North Carolina newspapers, The Randolph Guide and The Laurinburg Exchange. Mrs. Mills had an extensive background in gardening and was president of The Garden Club of North Carolina, Inc. She was appointed to two statewide organizations by two North Carolina governors, Dan K. Moore and Robert Scott. The Garden Club of North Carolina honored her with a life membership in 1962 and with The Maslin Award in 1972. Mrs. Mills was a graduate of Sweet Briar College in Virginia with a degree in English. She taught four years in Virginia and North Carolina schools prior to her marriage to L. Barron Mills Sr.
