Board Election Revolt! How Florida's First Condo Ombudsman Became the 500-Pound Gorilla:

The integrity of elections in condominium associations has been seriously compromised. Legislative reforms are required to ensure that condo owners have democratic election procedures in place that are firmly enforced. Valmore Lucier served as Chief Election Monitor under Florida's first Condo Ombudsman, Dr. Virgil Rizzo. His book describes how condo elections should be conducted - and what some boards and their attorneys are willing to do to stay in power. It also details reforms that are needed and why. This book is a must-read for anyone who wants to understand how to protect condo owners against abuse and mismanagement.
