This economy didn't help at all with my vacation budget. So instead of shelling out $3000 for Costa Rica this year, I invested my money in my future (a.k.a. my savings account) and bought a catalyst for my daydreaming for less than $100 during my staycation. With oceans a deep blue as the azure sky in islands far away, to exclusive indulgent European escapes, this book gave my get-away-from-it-all fantasies a wonderful backdrop. And when I journeyed back from the tropical breezes in my mind, my wallet was still calm and happy. I highly recommend this book for someone looking for a feast for the eyes and a great affordable retreat.

Really getting away from it all is still possible--if you know where to go. This breath-taking guide profiles over 70 select resorts and hotels where you can fall asleep to just the murmuring wind or the gentle lapping of waves. Here, off the beaten track, you can savor the unspoiled wonders of our planet--in chic comfort, of course. From the jungles of Costa Rica to an Italian hill town, the compendium of footloose destinations will whisk readers away from everyday cares.
