

(Mobile book) Design Styles for Wood Glass: Patterns and Concepts

Design Styles for Wood Glass: Patterns and Concepts

Therese Vaux de la Fontaine

*ePub | DOC | audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF

DOWNLOAD

+

READ ONLINE

#2524264 in Books 2016-11-19Original language:English 10.00 x .12 x 8.001, #File Name: 154052974648 pages | File size: 18.Mb

Therese Vaux de la Fontaine : Design Styles for Wood Glass: Patterns and Concepts before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Design Styles for Wood Glass: Patterns and Concepts:

A Designer's pattern book, containing original stain glass and wood inlay designs, from Jack Aguirre, furniture store designer and planner for over 50 years. Discussed are basic concepts that will help new participants in the field of design. Ready-to-use printable versions of drafted patterns accompany most of the original drawings. The book is also very colorful, with many variations of color tones for each individual pattern. Shapes and forms include: Rectangles, squares, triangles, diamonds, circles, snow stars, contemporary artwork, and puzzles. The design patterns within this book's collection, are the basis for creating a remodel or a rebuild, bringing the inherit properties of balance with intricacies. The designs lend themselves as either; direct usage, pattern-by-pattern, or simply as a guidance direction, for your own interior or exterior design creations.

About the AuthorOriginal designs by Jack Aguirre. Designer of over 100 furniture stores around the world for over 50 years. Artistic compilation gathered and written by Therese Vaux de la Fontaine: Originally a San Francisco Bay Area resident, she has been an international traveler throughout much of her lifetime, as well as working many years in Europe as a ballerina. Shes an avid artist and photographer, and has written and designed: Coloring Books with Ballet characters; Ballet Sweet Fairies Dancing, The Dancing Animals of Kianthor Kingdom. Stained Glass Interior Design; Design Styles for Wood and Glass. Art Books: Gallery Therese; her paintings from France Flower Power with Therese; over 20 years of techniques as a young trained artist. Photography and Philosophy; European Journeys with Therese: The Corsica Edition Therese is a also a fine arts painter, who paints and/or illustrates with temperas and inks. Paintings often with a cartoon-Chagall tone, with subjects often being spirited animals, with reasoned stories to tell. Other trained works include, gathering wool from freshly trimmed wool pelts, hand-carding the wool, and then weaving wall hangings, with ancient Icelandic methods. She is also an active online and offline Yogi, Zayvra, who after many life upsets and dejections, has become a natural Shiva teacher and guidance participant to many. After living over 15 yrs in France, where most of her time was spent as a self-sufficient gardener, forager, philosopher and artist. Further details regarding Therese, (Royal Capetian of France) are found at: www.queen-of-france.com