Great things for the whole family to make and do This collection of projects from the pages of award-winning Cottage Life magazine is packed with ideas to make your weekend retreat -- or even your home -- more comfortable and more fun. With its lively, enjoyable-to-read text and clear step-by-step instructions, Docks and Projects offers a wealth of useful, entertaining suggestions your entire family will enjoy. It is lavishly illustrated with photographs and drawings showing the various stages of construction. It also includes material and tool lists, and easy-to-follow plans and templates. Docks and Projects will show you how to: Build a first-class floating dock Fix up your boat so it looks like new Carve a canoe paddle or whittle a willow whistle Make a rope mat and an easy-weave hammock Build four model boats that run Save space with a canoe and sailboard rack or a dockside storage box Build an outdoor shower with a view Make three waterfront whirlgigs Put in a flagpole or a flagstone path Build a classic cottage chair Make an old-fashioned crokinole board Packed full of nifty suggestion for your cottage, cabin, camp, or beach house, Cottage Life Docks and Projects will earn a permanent place on your bookshelf.

Projects from the pages of Cottage Life gather the best of the magazine's weekend projects involving docks and home projects. From building an outdoor shower to making a hammock or canoe paddle, these are varied, outdoors-oriented projects for the whole family's use and enjoyment. -- Midwest Book About the Author Edited by Ann Vanderhoof
