Bill Brown : Dream Whip: The Pedal-Powered Movie Tour before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Dream Whip: The Pedal-Powered Movie Tour:

Follow Bill and his friends as they pedal over hill and dale on a bike ride across the United States. It's 2000 miles of meth heads and road rage, rail trails, Mississippi River murder, psychic waitresses, anarchists, haunted Unitarian churches, soybeans from Satan, farm dogs with bad attitudes, and coconut cream pie.

"Brown paints a picture out of road meals and route challenges. Its calm and ambling, much like a bike tour tends to be. The pages are filled with the graceful ache of empty, forgotten roads and the poetic panic of traversing sketchy highway passes." - Krista Carlson from Urban Velo
