Over 60 stories of women in classical mythology.

From the Publisher A "Who's Who" of women in classical mythology! The stories in this collection will not only satisfy the mythology lover and feminine scholar but make an outstanding curriculum supplement for humanities or literatures courses in elementary and high school. They are especially appropriate for courses emphasizing a returning emphasis on classical literature. About the Author Betty Lies, author of poetry, articles, and The Poet's Pen, taught middle and high school English for 28 years. She is a poet in the schools for the New Jersey State Council on the Arts and is a Geraldine R. Dodge Poet.
