Alison Beck, Louise Donnelly : Fruit and Berry Gardening for Canada before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Fruit and Berry Gardening for Canada:

It's amazing the range of fruits and berries you can grow in Canada when you know the proper techniques. Healthy: blueberry, cranberry, goji berry and grapeExotic: banana, citrus, fig, gingko, olive, persimmon and pineappleEasy to grow: apple, cherry, elderberry, pear, plum, raspberry and blackberry, rhubarb, serviceberry (saskatoon) and strawberry

Nuts: beech, chestnut, hazelnut, pecan, pine nut and walnut
Unusual: cape gooseberry, kiwi, passion fruit and prickly pear
Fun for kids: melon, peanut, squash and watermelon
Plus: almond, apricot, bayberry, chokeberry, currant and gooseberry, hawthorn, highbush cranberry, juniper berry, mulberry, Oregon grapeholly, peace and nectarine, quince, rosehip, sumac and wintergreen
Even if you have only a small plot of land or a balcony on which to garden, don't let it stop you from experimenting with a variety of fruits and berries. In this book, veteran garden writers Alison Beck and Louise Donnelly present all the information you need to know:
* Selection, planting and care of plants
* Ideal garden locations for certain types of plants
* Preparing the garden
* Pruning and propagation
* Problems and pests.

About the Author
LOUISE DONNELLY is the former garden and cookbook columnist for BC BookWorld and continues there as a contributing editor. For many years she worked for an Okanagan Valley orchard fruit market as an in-house writer and book buyer. She lives in a log house on a small acreage that was once part of the historic BX Ranch and, as a keen but amateur backyard gardener, is delighted when the raspberries are ripe.
ALISON BECK has been gardening since she was a child. She has a diploma in Horticulture and a degree in Creative Writing. Alison is the coauthor of several best-selling gardening guides, and her books showcase her talent for practical advice and her passion for gardening.
