George Grant, Karen B. Grant : Garden Graces: How the Simple Tasks of Gardening Have Affected the Art, Music, Literature, and Ideas of Western Civilization before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Garden Graces: How the Simple Tasks of Gardening Have Affected the Art, Music, Literature, and Ideas of Western Civilization:

Garden Graces explores the universal appeal of working the soil, husbanding the plants, and tending the harvest. By taking a long and lingering look at some of the world's most beautiful gardens and recounting the legends, testimonies, quips, verses, and stories of the gardeners who created them, Garden Graces explores the mysterious joys of sowing and reaping. The ultimate result is a thoughtful guide that highlights the benefits and personal enrichment that come to the backyard putterer.
