Chatelaine, Joan Mackie : Garden Rooms: Nature-Inspired Decorating Indoors and Out (Chatelaine Home Decor) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Garden Rooms: Nature-Inspired Decorating Indoors and Out (Chatelaine Home Decor):

Creating a garden room is easy when you collaborate with nature. The garden presents imagery that gives life to wallpaper, lamps, carpets and fabrics. In Garden Rooms, the first book in the Chatelaine Home Dcor series, youll find everything you need to create that summer feeling all year long: decorating know-how, inspired colors, easy do-it-yourself projects and more. Choose a color palette from the drifts of soft shades swirling through a perennial border or the brilliance of several fiery hot-colored flowers growing close together. Garden Rooms is about flowers, botanical prints and floral cushions. But its also about magic and mood, romance and warmth and how to achieve all those qualities in your home indoors and out.
