Gardening from Berryfields cleverly distills all the information packed into each episode of the BBC's flagship gardening program, Gardeners World, drawing on the immense horticultural experience of Monty Don, the show's main presenter. Using the principal projects undertaken at Berryfields, the Gardeners World garden, the book guides the reader through a year of projects. It covers such topics as the kitchen garden, courtyard garden, dry garden, herb garden, mixed borders, pond, orchard, and wildflower meadow. It also includes plenty of helpful tips on planting, pruning, harvesting, and care.
